ONLY ONE VOTE AGAINST IT. MEET TO NAME REVISED CREED ADOPTED;

der Tearfully Pleads for the Old Faith, but the Presbyterian General Assembly Drowns His Voice with Vigorous Interruptions.

In a perfect storm of cheers and cat calls and with one old man weepng and prophecying the downfall of e Church, the question of creed resion for the Presbyterian Church put to a vote in the General Asbly of that denomination to-day ad passed with only one dissenting

The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian hurch, where the Assembly was in session, was crowded to its very doors. It was known that the vote on the revision was to be taken and the greatest inter-est was manifested. There were many men in the audience and they were not the least backward in their demonstration of applause at the final out

When the time came for the taking of of the Creed Revision Committee many eches were made by the leaders of the reform, urging that the report of the committee be unanimously adopted. The Rev. Dr. Minton had made a motion to this effect. The Rev. Dr. Duffield seconded the motion. Dr. Minton made a long argument in rose to put the question, but before do-ing so he asked if there were an who objections to make. Rev. Francis L. Goff, of Kentucky, arose and began to protest against the change.

As soon as the tenor of his remarks was caught cries of "Question" were heard on all sides. Dr. Goff kept right to talking, but the uproar was such that it was difficult to hear him. He finally made himself understood as being opposed to the change, but said that he would refrain from voting in view to for a writ of mandamus made by Miss Helena Heinrichs to compel the trustees of the Brooklyn Hospital and Training School to reinstate her as a nurse. She was discharged some time ago for alleged incompetence.
